KJK
BLIJF DOORVRAGEN

Brand

Science and technology are fascinating, for young and old alike, and constantly evolving. By writing about them in an in-depth yet highly accessible way, KIJK keeps its readers up to date. And in a world where fake news is the order of the day, this interpretation is more than necessary. Those who read KIJK not only know exactly what is going on, but also why.

Target group

KIJK readers have a mature outlook, a higher level of general education, and an above-average interest in science and technology. They tend to be science-oriented, but not necessarily experts in that field. They are often men with an above-average income in households with children. They want to stay informed and continue to discover new things. And they want to get a grip on the fascinating, complex world in which they live. For that reason, they also like to read about the four pillars of science, tech, space, and people.

Paperwrap

Paperwrap

New advertising concept in 2026

The paper wrap is more than just packaging: it is a communication tool that presents your brand story right from the moment it arrives at the doorstep. Print it with a message or teaser for maximum visibility and personalization.

From 2026, we will be packaging our magazines in paper instead of plastic. The paper wrap is environmentally friendly, made from renewable raw materials, fully recyclable, and emits less CO₂.

Advantages

- Your message is the first thing the reader will see
- It reaches the audience twice
- It makes your brand literally tangible
